Dog Canvas Proposed

At the Mar. 24 Huron Township Board meeting Treasurer Adkins informed the board that the animal control officer wanted to canvas the township for dog ownership to increase the amount of properly licensed dogs.

The animal control officer has advised the Treasurer that it was 12 years ago since the last canvas and that one was a success. The Treasurer requested the hiring of three part-time canvassers at $6.15 per hour. These workers will likely canvas the township sometime during the months of May and June.

Until that time, perhaps some citizens will take the time to properly license their dogs and avoid any future problems.

In an unrelated item the Police Chief asked the board to accept a Department of Justice Grant and in return for the approval he would be able to promote two part-time officers to full time and hire two additional part time. The chief added that he hoped the township would be able someday to eliminate all part-time officers and have all full-time officers. As a follow up to this, Treasurer Adkins said he had been looking into the budget and they may be able to continue to sustain additions to the police department even when the grant expires.

In another matter, Gypsy Moth Coordinator Chuck Angel presented the bid specifications to the board. The proposal is essentially the same as last year except the amount of spraying was reduced to 1,000 acres instead of 1,500 acres. As previously reported, Mr. Angel felt the participation would be less than last year but he still encouraged all citizens, affected by the plight, to continue to participate in the spraying.

The board approved the bid specifications and also approved the individual contract with Mr. Angel. The terms of his contract is essentially the same last year. Chuck advised the board that he would send bids out to all of the qualified bidders, would open the bids on April 8, and submit the results of the board.

In final matters, Treasurer Adkins advised the board the Recreation Commission was contemplating a public hearing in April to discuss what should be added to the proposed new Master Plan in terms of recreation.

Trustee Adkins mentioned the second recycling tape was almost complete and would be aired on the township's public access station. The tape deals with the type of material that can be disposed of during the Township's Spring Clean-Up Day. This tape is timely because the Spring clean-up will be scheduled soon.

Trustee McKinney asked the board to begin reconsidering the review of our buildings in terms of compliance with the Americans with Disability Act. He reminded the board they, at one time, were looking into the matter and then seemed to lose interest. After some discussion it was agreed the Buildings and Grounds Committee would take it on as a project.

School Bond Issue Defeated

The school bond vote that was held on Mar. 20 went down to defeat by a large margin of 927 "no" votes to 543 "yes" votes.

The proposal failed in all but one precinct, The Huron Estates. There, the "yes" votes out-numbered the "no" votes 31 to 2. In the remaining precincts the margins were Miller School 158 to 320, Waltz 157 to 219, Senior High 149 to 325 and absentee 48 to 61.

Some of the veterans of millage elections noted the total count was 1,470 which is the traditional vote count of 1,400 and has occurred several times in the past and always spells defeat for the proposal.

During the time The Weekly followed the proposal, the citizens that spoke to us suggested the proposal was too comprehensive or costly. They suggested the proposal be pared down to perhaps repair or renovation issues and this might survive a vote by the citizens.

Regardless of the diverse opinions offered, the Huron Board of Education will likely begin discussing alternatives and may approach the community with a different proposal at the regular June School Board Elections.

The Weekly will follow this issue and will continue to report on the board's efforts to improve the physical plants in the district.

The last recipe of the month will always be a dessert. I hope to be able to give you great desserts that are easy, too.

There is a spice in this recipe called fenugreek. It is used a lot in Indian cooking. I know that many of you are wondering what is an Indian spice doing in an Irish recipe, will, I did say it was optional. If you happen to have this spice in your collection please try a little in your apples, I think you will be pleasantly surprised.

Next week I will begin the April series with recipes from the Bayou country. No, we will not be exploring the many

Community Profile

Scott Adkins

The Community Profile for this issue would like to present Scott Adkins, Huron Township Treasurer, to our readers.

Scott grew up in Huron Township. He graduated from Huron High School and earned his Bachelor of Science Degree in Public Law and Government from Eastern Michigan University and will receive his Masters in Liberal Arts in December. Scott has always been active in school and the community. Being one of the founders of the Huron Township Jaycees and having served several terms as President of the Waltz Improvement Association. His wife, Larissa (Hindbaugh) Adkins is from Huron Township and they have two sons Jacob age seven, and Trevor age three. They reside in a modest home on Rust

Road.

Treasurer Adkins has the most modest office for a government official that I have been privileged to visit. It is approximately ten feet by seven feet and it is where this interview was conducted.

Scott has been able to accomplish several things that led toward the betterment of Huron Township residents. He has restructured bank accounts (sweep accounts) and investments that made substantial amounts of money for the township. Good money management made it possible to purchase $1,000,000 worth of fire equipment at no additional cost to the taxpayer. Under his direction the Treasurers Office has become more efficient in computer use, productivity has increased, there has been an increase in tax collection, the office has been streamlined and the office is extremely people friendly.

Scott has several goals for his office and the township. They are as follows: lower housing for young couples, continue the plan for progressive growth, preserve our villages by establishing a general business district with a drug store a supermarket, a laundromat, a quick oil change, and there is a need to expand our recreation system. Scott is willing to work with all county and state officials regardless of their political affiliation.

In closing, Scott believes in a hands-on administration and he believes we are constantly investing in our own community.

Business Profile

What do you usually find in a chicken coop? Chickens, of course! Not in Huron Township. In Huron Township they make candles in chicken coops.

The New Boston Candle Company began when Shelly Lezotte did not care for the scented jar candles she had been purchasing. The aroma began to wane and there was still at least half a candle left. She began to create her own and an old friend Ellen Rees joined with her to handle the numbers and a great little big company was born. The candle company is a family business with both Ellen's and Shelley's children involved.

All of the candle making is done by hand and they offer over 25 scents.

The business is thriving.

In 1998 business doubled 100 percent by Christmas and after the holiday season business had risen to 150 percent, two and a half times the previous year.

They are selling their candles to retailers in all 50 states and several foreign countries including Italy, Brazil, Egypt, Germany, Japan and Canada.

Within the next 36 months they will have 3,000 square feet of warehousing, a computer network connecting their retailers and a much larger chicken coop with 4,000 square feet of pouring and manufacturing space.

Look for their new kiosks in malls in the area and if you wish to purchase their exquisitely fragranced candles just call 734-692-2500 or 734-287-3539 or 734-782-5809.

When the move is completed there will be a duck, several cats, horses, dogs and a goat that will be very excited to get their little chicken coop back.

Historical Society Invitation

We would like to take a few moments to invite you, the members of our community, to attend a meeting of your historical society. Remember, you need not be of antiquity to come and enjoy a brief period of camaraderie. New ideas and fresh input are a necessary factor in keeping an organization moving in a forward direction. Come and visit with us. We will not hold you prisoner and make you promise to do things for the society before we let you go. We will not call at all hours of the night and ask you for help. We will save that sort of thing for the evening hours!!! Remember, we are not part of any governing body. We are our own entity. There is more to learn about our township, so if you can, come and tell us about any experiences you have had. If you have any information about any aspect of Huron Township, come teach us and show us. If we lose sight of our past, how sure will our future be? Our meetings are held at the Applefest Building on the third Wednesday of the month at 7:30 p.m. Any concerns, drop us a note at P.O. Box 38, New Boston. Hope to see you soon.

YOUR WEEKLY HOROSCOPE

Your Cosmic Link For The Week of April 1 thru April 7

by William Grover

Aries (Mar. 21-April 20) It's finally time you start thinking Spring. Clean old thoughts out of your head. Put "ace" in hole, and play "face" cards first. Be prepared for high stake game. Hold off planting new trees.

Lucky #692.

Taurus (April 21-May 21) "Young" child asks you big question, why? Answer more important later than now, but but truth is most important. May run risk of being labeled liar. Business deal takes unfamiliar turn. Start documenting details. Lucky #671.

Gemini (May 22-June 21) Big project building up. Lazy attitude may have you looking like an April fool. Bring partner's demands to top of list. Throw out radical idea and do all the rest. New arrival in household has you longing for sleep, but well worth the effort. Lucky #329.

Cancer (June 22-July 23) "April Fool" comes but only once a year, no different than any other day for you. You feel like the balls are about to bust, but you hold the circus together like the skillful ringmaster you are. Lucky #292.

Leo (July 24-Aug. 23) Mouth finds you on Waltz Road again. Children try "high" April Fools joke but you've seen it all before. Pretend to be sucked in for just a minute. Things come back together after Blue Moon. North is south and south is north again. Lucky #284.

Virgo (Aug. 24-Sept. 23) Soulmate impressed with decision to leave on well-deserved vacation. Your fuel tank is on empty. Use old mower on first cut then break out new. Be prepared to kill insect on sight. Lucky #914.

Libra (Sept. 24-Oct. 23) Soulmate disappoints you one more time, again! Refused to "study" for big test that will open door. Maybe shut door on them, maybe no choice. New job or position working out just great, but you are still working below academic level. Look for window. Lucky #783.

Scorpio (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) New arrival in house helps pick up spirits. Hurray! You can have a beer, again. But don't overdue it. And definitely no driving while you drink. Start putting things away at vacation home. Concentrate on projects at home. Lucky #675.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 20) Pressure builds on big event. Everybody asks you, why?

Answers don't cut the cheese no less the butter. Partner having second thoughts on long-term commitment, maybe price of being "cool" too high. Lucky #125.

Aquarius (Jan. 21-Feb. 19) Bad luck. Double broken coffee pot. One on vacation and one at home. Make arrangements for early departure. The first boat may be the best boat. Stop and look at never-seen-before object. Looks like same ole stuff. Lucky #554.

Pisces (Feb. 20-Mar. 20) Long distance news comes slow. Loved one makes game out of communications. Puts emotional burner on high. People dangle treasure in face like a carrot in front of a mule. Puts emotional burner on high. Time to make coffee. Lucky #285.

Sagittarius (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Older child has you wondering where you went wrong. Who knows, huh? Work situation starting to bore you. But only 29½ years to go. Not bad, huh? Move dinner plans ahead to lunch plans. And when all else fails, try for donuts and coffee. Lucky #381.

*For entertainment purposes only. 800-251-888-1

ATTENTION CLASS OF '75

The Millennium approaches! With it comes our 25th Silver Anniversary Reunion. We have, at the close of March, 63 weeks to plan, "What to do" for this reunion. We are forming a (10 panel) committee, to put together this Millennium Party. And we want to contact all those "Who did" and "Did not" graduate, but were none the less part of our class. The first 10 people to call or e-mail will sit on this panel and make all these (reunion) decisions.

So let it be written ... so let it be done.
